WHITE TRASH

(CROSS MY HEART, A LITTLE WALK WITH JESUS)

In the Spring of 2015, some beautiful red tulips bloomed near the house we were renting. They're my favorite flower and I needed a new cover photo for social media so an idea was born. Tulips will brighten up my page!

I noticed the barn in the field behind the flowers and lay down on the ground to get the perfect shot. Tulips bursting with colors with a barn behind it. I loved the photo! I soon uploaded it and got tons of lovely comments. Many friends suggested I frame a copy.

Instead of framing a copy, I had a canvas print made to hang on the wall. It was perfect.

Soon, I got a new job with a large, nice office. A coworker suggested I get a large canvas of the photo to hang above the file cabinets. There was a reimbursement (up to a certain amount) for office decor. Ooh la la!

Before long, I had a lovely, large canvas hanging above my file cabinets to brighten up my new office space.

With the larger print, I noticed something in the background. It was behind the tulips, in the gravel driveway, in front of the barn. It was white. It looked like trash.

Our older sons parked back there. It appeared to be a wadded up fast food bag from Sonic or McDonalds right in the middle of my beautiful tulip photo.

Too late to take another photo. I hadn't noticed the trash when I got excited about the tulips then decided to lay on the ground and capture the barn in the background. The tulips were gone by the time I noticed the trash.

These days, the large canvas is hanging in a new office at my current employer. I see the trash and point it out when I get compliments on the tulip photo. Because it's okay if there is a little trash in the background.

The reality is we all have some trash in our background. Things we wish weren't there. Things we wish others didn't know or see. Things we wish we could erase.

But we can't change it. By the time we bloom into the person God has called us to be, the trash is a good reminder. We're not the same person we once were. God has changed us for the better. But we don't want to forget where we've come from. It makes us thankful for what God has done.

There's definitely some white trash in my background. And I'm okay with that.

Pre-arranging your funeral or cremation services is the right thing to do for a number of reasons:

1. Takes the financial burden off of your survivors when you die.
2. You make the choices and selections so your family doesn't have to.
3. You pay today's price for a service or merchandise that may not be needed for years later - when the cost will be more expensive.
4. The money placed into a pre-paid funeral or cremation plan is protected from Medicaid and not counted as an asset when trying to qualify for a nursing home.

Pre-need planning is a thoughtful gesture that protects your family from difficult decisions and financial burdens during a time of immense grief. It ensures they can focus on healing and remembrance, not logistics.

By outlining your preferences, you provide clear guidance, preventing potential disagreements and ensuring a farewell that truly reflects your unique life and values. Pre-paying for your funeral allows you to lock in current prices, shielding your family from the impact of inflation and rising expenses in the future.
